BULLETIN REFLECTION

REFLECTION

Ascension biblically speaking is the ascent of Christ into heaven on the fortieth day after the resurrection. Both the Gospel and the first reading are sowing us the entry of Jesus into the glory of his father. But the images used to explain the fact are not easy for us to understand; so we can run the risk of looking on the feast of Ascension with our eyes raised up to the sky. This is exactly the opposite of what we should do; it is a feast inviting us to look down to earth, to people among whom we are called to make present the work of the Master the mandate to evangelize the whole human race. Though Jesus was no longer visible near them, the disciples were full of joy and the Gospel hints at the reason of their joy and these same reason should make us and our communities full of joy.
