BULLETIN REFLECTION

REFLECTION

The New Commandment by Jesus today to love one another is to be reflected among us Christians more specifically those who often pay service love instead of the love that comes from within (heart) in John 13:34 was a claim on call for us to adhere, even in the bible in Romans 13:8. The instruction is owe nobody anything except to love him or her, but often times we hurt our brothers and sisters by our way of life, Jesus is calling each of us today to reflect on our attitude of love towards others. A new commandment that I am giving you love one another as I have loved you, which was his reason for dying on the Cross to save humanity loss in Sin.

The Second reading of today also present the new world that will rise at the end of time when God will destroy evil and only the good will remain. But this new world begins right now and is manifested wherever love is being practised.

Announcements
