Reflection

The first reading and the Gospel use the image of Marriage to describe the relationship between God and His people. The prophet Isaiah promises that Jerusalem, destroyed and abandoned, will once again be the beloved spouse of God. Jesus works His first “sign” in the context of a marriage feast, and it is the sign of the new Covenant that He has come to celebrate.

By giving His wine that cheers the human heart He transformed the sterile religion of the Jews. Whereas the second reading deals on a very topical point for our communities; it speaks of human charisma (gift) God grants these to each one of us so that we serve our brothers and sisters better. Whenever charisma is used in this way then our communities will be filled with love, cheerfulness and peace. This is the sign of the presence of the “wine” given by Jesus .
