Reflection

BULLETIN REFLECTION

Fourth Sunday

Josh 5:9, 10-12 The feast of Passover is celebrated on the plains of

Jericho, The Israelites eat the produce of the Promise Land and the Manna ceases.

2 Cor 5:17-21 The old order has passed away; now all is new – Christ

Who never Sinned became “sin” that we might become the very holiness of God.

Lk 15: 1-3, 11-32 The parable of the prodigal Father freely forgiving the younger son.

Within the first reading from Joshua the thought moves from an extraordinary event to the remembrance of it, from miracles to a more normal work-a day’s existence, from God providing the miraculous food of Manna to the necessity of growing, harvesting and preparing the unleavened cakes and parched grain. The great miracles of the older generation now belong to history.

Announcements
